6TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

USAO Files Drug Nuisance Complaint Against Owners of 4810 Quarles Street, N.E. The U.S. Attorney's Office, as a part of its Community Prosecution Initiative, has filed suit in D.C. Superior Court against the owners of 4810 Quarles St., NE under the Drug Related Nuisance Abatement Act. It is the first time this unique statute has been used to remedy a nuisance property. This civil complaint seeks the declaration of the building as a Nuisance Related Property and asks the Court to issue an injunction. The filing of this complaint is our effort to improve the quality of life that has been substantially diminished as a result of the on-going drug-trafficking activity that has plagued this community, resulting from crime at this apartment building. The building is less than two blocks away from Ron Brown Middle School and directly across from a day-care center. The suit is a joint effort of the USAO Community Prosecution Section, Cdr. Dandridge of the Metropolitan Police Department's 6th District, the 6D Focus Mission Unit, the Ward 7 CORE team, and community's residents.

The COURT REPORT

U.S. Attorney's Office Files Drug Nuisance Complaint Against Owners of Ward 7 Property Near Middle School

FACTS: On April 27, 2004, United States Attorney Roscoe C. Howard, Jr. announced that a civil complaint was filed in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia under the Drug Related Nuisance Abatement Act against Benjamin Haynes Aiken and Aiken Four Properties, owners of the drug-related nuisance property located at 4810 Quarles Street, N.E.

According to the complaint filed on Monday, the seventeen-unit building located in Ward 7 is currently being used as a base of operation for the sale and use of marijuana, ecstasy, and other illegal drugs. The property is less than two blocks away from the Ronald Brown Middle School and is located directly across the street from a day care center. The complaint alleges that property owners have failed to take corrective action, despite multiple contacts from this office regarding the existing nuisance conditions.

In the past year alone, the police have responded to approximately 110 calls for service at 4810 Quarles Street, N.E. Since January 2002, at least thirty-six individuals have been arrested on the property for drug-related activities, nine of which included weapons offenses. A number of fugitives have also been apprehended at or around the property and calls relating to gunshots are frequent.

In announcing the civil action, U.S. Attorney Howard expressly noted that "this week's action demonstrates our resolve to hold property owners accountable for permitting the conduct of illegal activity on their property. Property owners have a responsibility to their tenants and their community. Residents should not be held hostage in their neighborhoods by thugs and drug dealers or those who enable them."

The civil action was supported by the community, including the Far Northeast/Southeast Council, which includes the Deanwood Citizens Association and other civic organizations. In an affidavit submitted in support of the complaint, they stated: "[Residents] feel as if their neighborhood has been taken over by the drug dealers, and are afraid to allow their children and grandchildren to play outside." They also cite "constant drug trafficking" from the building and numerous instances of fights.

This action falls under the efforts of the U.S. Attorney's Office Community Prosecution Initiative. These prosecutors and Outreach Specialists are assigned to each of the seven police districts and work pro-actively with the community to address quality of life issues in their neighborhood. The prosecutors and Outreach Specialists work with the Civil Division and the Asset Forfeiture Section of the Office to initiate civil abatement actions and, where appropriate, forfeiture proceedings. This nuisance property abatement action is the joint effort of the Community Prosecution Initiative, the Mayor's Office CORE Team, the Metropolitan Police Department - 6th Police District, other City agencies, and community residents.

Marco A. Foggs pleads guilty pre-indictment to one count each of Assault and Possession of a Prohibited Weapon. (PSA 604; Case Number F-878-04)

FACTS: On March 22, 2004, Marco A. Foggs, of Washington, DC, pled guilty to one count of assault and possession of a prohibited weapon, before Superior Court Judge Maurice Ross.

According to the government's evidence, on February 6, 2004, the complainant was in front of her home when she observed the defendant become involved in an argument with another individual near her home. As the complainant watched the argument, the defendant turned to her and stated, "Yeah, you too!" When the complainant asked what the defendant was talking about, the defendant threw a beverage in her face. The complainant grabbed the defendant, whereupon the defendant produced a pocketknife, stabbed the complainant in the left side of her face, and fled on foot. The complainant subsequently reported the incident to the Metropolitan Police Department. On February 7, 2004, the complainant was shown a photo array in which she positively identified the defendant as the person who assaulted her. The police arrested the defendant later that same day. He is scheduled to be sentenced by Judge Ross on May 20, 2004.

AUSA Ellen Chubin prosecuted the case.

Raymond E. Clark, Jr., pled guilty pre-indictment to two Counts of Assault. (PSA 606; Case Number F-893-04)

FACTS: On March 31, 2004, Raymond E. Clark, Jr., of Alexandria, Virginia, pled guilty in D.C. Superior Court, to two counts of assault. Clark was later sentenced that same day to 180 days confinement (entirely suspended), and one year of supervised probation (on each count) by Judge Erik Christian.

According to the government's evidence, on or about February 8, 2004, the defendant was with friends in the 3000 block of East Capitol Street, S.E., when he started acting strange. An argument ensued, and the police were called. After arriving at the scene, the officers attempted to arrest the defendant and a struggle ensued. The defendant attempted to kick one officer and a second officer suffered a torn tendon in one of his left fingers while trying to restrain the defendant. The defendant was eventually restrained and transported.

AUSA Ellen Chubin prosecuted the case.

Kenneth M. Davis was convicted of Aggravated Assault While Armed and Assault on a Police Officer with a Dangerous Weapon (all terrain vehicle). (PSA 602; Case Number F-4455-03)

FACTS: On April 27, 2004, Kenneth M. Davis, 24, formerly of the 4800 block of Quarles Street, N.E., was convicted by a Superior Court jury of aggravated assault while armed and assault on a police officer with a dangerous weapon. Davis faces the possibility of a total of forty years of imprisonment when he is sentenced on June 25, 2004, before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr.

According to the evidence presented by the government, on July 26, 2003, at the intersection of Division Avenue and Blaine Streets, N.E., Metropolitan Police Officer David Moran attempted to conduct a traffic stop of the defendant who was operating an all-terrain vehicle ("ATV"). The defendant refused to cooperate with Officer Moran, and instead drove the ATV into and over Officer Moran and his motorcycle. The impact caused a number of injuries to Officer Moran, including a broken jaw that was wired shut for several months. The defendant immediately fled the scene, running into a back alley, discarding his shirt, and hiding in an outdoor basement stairwell, where he was arrested by Officer Francis Jenkins, III.

Former AUSA Darrell Jackson investigated and indicted the case and AUSA Catherine A. Hartzenbusch prosecuted the case.

Andrew Williams pled guilty to Robbery and Assault with a Dangerous Weapon. (PSA 604; Case Number F-1618-04)

FACTS: On April 26, 2004, Andrew Williams, of no fixed address, pled guilty in D.C. Superior Court to robbery and assault with a dangerous weapon. Judge Susan R. Winfield will sentence Williams on August 2, 2004.

According to the government's evidence, on February 27, 2004, at approximately 5:45 p.m., the complainant, a Domino's Pizza delivery man, was delivering a pizza in the 3700 block of Hayes Street, N.E., when the defendant approached him, displayed a sawed-off shotgun, and demanded the scooter he was riding. The complainant complied, and the defendant drove away on the scooter. The complainant immediately called 911, reported what had happened, and provided a description of the defendant.

Three hours later, Metropolitan Police Department officers receive a call for the sound of gunshots in the area of the 3700 block of Hayes St., N.E. When the officers responded to the scene, they observed the defendant and another juvenile on the roof of the building at 3778 Hayes Street, N.E. The officers ordered the defendant to come down off of the roof. The defendant initially refused, but finally came down after officers surrounded the building. When the defendant came down from the roof, the officers noticed that he matched the description of the suspect in the earlier pizza delivery robbery. The complainant was brought to the scene and positively identified the defendant as the person who had robbed him three hours earlier. When the officers searched the roof of the building, they discovered a Pardner Model SB1 410. gauge sawed-off shotgun that the defendant had used to commit the robbery.

AUSA Tonya Sulia prosecuted the case.

Caregiver, Elisha Bemah, was sentenced to 120 Days for Assault of a resident at a group home for the mentally retarded. (PSA 601; Case Number F-878-04)

FACTS: On April 6, 2004, Elisha Bemah, 28, of the 5000 block of Jay Street, N.E., was sentenced to a 120-day term of imprisonment by Senior Judge John R. Hess of the District of Columbia Superior Court for assaulting a vulnerable adult resident at a group home for mentally retarded individuals in Southeast, Washington, D.C. on August 19, 2003. On March 25, 2004, Judge Hess found Bemah guilty of the assault, which took place while he was employed as a caregiver at the group home. Bemah's term of imprisonment will be followed by a two-year period of probation during which he will be required to complete 200 hours of community service (in a setting without children or vulnerable adults), drug testing and undergo any drug treatment required, stay away from the victim and the group home where he resides, and complete anger management and sensitivity training courses.

The Metropolitan Police Department Sixth District, Department of Human Services Incident Management & Investigations Unit (IMIU) and the OIG Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) jointly investigated the assault. The MFCU, which was created in March 2000, handled this case as part of an effort called the Guardian Angel Project (GAP). GAP is a comprehensive program designed to deter and when appropriate, punish health care providers who intentionally abuse or neglect vulnerable persons under their care. Among the institutions covered by GAP are nursing homes, group homes for adults who are mentally retarded and facilities for mentally ill persons.

Antoine Coleman was sentenced to 71 years in prison for executing two teenagers over a broken car window. (PSA 602; Case Number F-2232-01)

FACTS: On April 26, 2004, Antoine Coleman, 24, of the 3500 block of Sixth Street, S.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced to 71 years to life in prison by Superior Court Judge Robert I. Richter for murdering two teenagers with an AK-47 assault rifle over a broken window. Coleman was convicted by a D.C. Superior Court jury in February 2004 of two counts of first degree premeditated murder while armed, obstruction of justice, and related weapons charges.

Coleman's co-defendant, Quincy Jones, 24, of the 1700 block of 19th Street, S.E., was also convicted in February 2004 of two counts of second degree murder while armed and related weapons offenses for his role in the same incident. Jones faces a maximum term of forty years to life in prison, with a minimum term of five years, when sentenced by Judge Richter on May 3, 2004.

The evidence at trial showed that on July 14, 2000, at 4:00 a.m., the defendants were in the Trenton Park housing complex in Southeast Washington (PSA 602). The defendants became angry when they learned that two teenagers from another neighborhood had broken into defendant Jones's car. In the parking lot near Jones's car, which is located in the 3500 block of Sixth Street, S.E., one of the defendants' friends held the two teenagers, Mylan Lucas, 17, and Hakim Williams, 19, at gunpoint with a shotgun. Meanwhile, Jones went to get an AK-47 assault rifle inside the apartment of his friend, defendant Coleman. Jones returned to the parking lot, AK-47 assault rifle in hand, and pointed the gun at the teenagers. The teenagers begged for their lives and promised to pay for the broken rear vent window of Jones's Oldsmobile. Jones handed the AK-47 assault rifle to Coleman, who had followed him out to the parking lot. Jones then searched the pockets of the teenagers to see if they had any money to pay for the broken window. They did not. Coleman then asked Jones what he wanted to do. Jones said, "F--- him." Coleman, at point-blank range, then fired the AK-47 repeatedly at Mylan Lucas. Four bullets struck Mylan Lucas in the head and several more in the back and torso, as Coleman continued to fire after Lucas had fallen. When the other teenager, Hakim Williams, flinched, as if he was trying to run away, the man with the shotgun (Kevin Bowman, who has already pleaded guilty to two counts of Second Degree Murder while Armed) shot Williams in the chest and hand. Coleman then shot Hakim Williams, after he had already been shot in the chest with a shotgun, three times in the head with the AK-47. When the police arrived on the scene, the teenagers' faces had been partially blown off.

AUSA's Jonathan Rosen and Doug Klein presented the case to the grand jury. Former AUSA Ann Rosenfield further investigated the case; AUSA Tom Tourish provided invaluable legal research, AUSA's Amanda Haines and Catherine Motz, presented a superseding indictment to the grand jury and tried the case.
